

The Brown Elementary School was a composite project combining an addition to the school as well as major renovations.

Under a phased construction schedule, work was completed while the building was occupied.

View of the brick pavers laid in a circular pattern with the decorative precast concrete bollards.

Brown Elementary School Natick, Massachusetts

Project

Addition and renovations to
Brown Elementary School
13 East Central Street
Natick, Massachusetts 01760

Owner

Town of Natick
Jim Connelly
13 East Central Street
Natick, Massachusetts 01760
(508) 651-7123

Architect

The Design Partnership
Joe Miele
86 Sherman Street
Cambridge, Massachusetts 02140
(617) 492-2550

Cost

$5,541,483

Size and Type of Construction

Construction of 60,000 sf of new and renovation work as well as site improvements. The exterior/envelope was structural steel with brick veneer. Interior walls are GWB systems and Masonry. Finishes include VCT, Carpet, Ceramic, Tile and Wood Flooring. Entrances were Aluminum Storefront and Aluminum Window Systems. The building included offices, classrooms, library and a theater.

This work was done in phases to accommodate an occupied building.

Types of Space

Educational